FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, BANGALORE.

Circular No. 394—B. (ii), dated 17*th November* 1939.

To—All Disbursing and Countersigning Officers.

Presentation of bills to the Treasuries with the relevant enclosures intact.

When the amounts of two or more bills payable to the same party, are authorised for payment on a single Audit Enfacement impressed on one of the bills, it is necessary that all the bills should be presented together at the Treasuries, although payment will be made only on the bill actually enfaced for payment. All Disbursing and Countersigning Officers are, therefore, requested to issue suitable instructions to the contractors and suppliers of their departments not to detach any of the enclosures to the bill containing the Audit Enfacement, as otherwise payments will be refused at the Treasuries.

V. T. SREENIVASAN,
Comptroller (In charge).
